

Food and Agriculture
Organization of the United Nations

GENERATION
AFRICA

CONNECTING YOUTH-LED DIGITAL INNOVATIONS TO FAO PROGRAMMES IN AFRICA

Monday, September 07, 2020,

Time: 11:00-13:00, Kigali Time, (09:00-11:00 GMT)

Agenda/Programme

Moderated by:

*Dickson Mbando Naftali,
Head of Generation Africa*

- Opening remarks

The context, session objective and session format

Ade Freeman, Regional Programme Leader, FAO/Regional Office for Africa
(11:00-11:10)

- First Presentation

Opportunities for youth-led digital solutions in FAO-led Programmes in Africa

Tony Nsanganira, Specialist, Youth Employment in Agri-food Systems, FAO/Regional Office for Africa (11:10-11:25)

- Second Presentation

Supporting youth entrepreneurs in digital agri-food systems: CTA Legacy

Ken Lohento, Senior Programme Coordinator, Youth Agripreneurship - ICT4Ag, CTA (11:25 – 11:40)

- Experience sharing

Two young innovators will briefly share their experiences on working with development organisations, private sector; gaps and opportunities in those partnerships.
(11:40– 11:50)

- Interactive Q&A session

Matchmaking arrangements to be made in advance in consideration of participants' areas of interest.
(11:50 – 12:50)

- Closing remarks

Ade Freeman, Regional Programme Leader, FAO/Regional Office for Africa
(12:50 – 13:00)